INTRO

VERSE 1
I was far away from You,
I chose the path that could never last.
Searching for something I thought could make me whole,
Fix this broken soul.

PRE-CHORUS 1
But everything I tried could never satisfy,
The longing that I felt inside.
At my very lowest point I could hear your gentle voice,
Whispering above the noise.
You said, "My child, just come back home."

VERSE 2
So, I made my way right back to You,
So far from worthy, so undeserving.
But You met me there with outstretched arms
Oh, you welcomed me into your family.

PRE-CHORUS 2
I don't know why, can't understand,
I'm not deserving of the grace you've shown.
Could never earn this love, I know, oh,
So with everything, with all I am,
Lord I bring to you my praise,
I'll use this life to give you thanks, oh.

CHORUS 1
You gave Your life to restore mine.
You paid it all for me, and now I'm redeemed.
You call me Yours and I'm so grateful, Lord.
You took my shame, gave me a brand new name,
and now I always got
a reason to celebrate.

VERSE 3
Now every day's a chance to sing
of how You rescued me,
Oh, you set me free.
Cause I remember who I used to be,
but you turned it all around,
I was lost but now I'm found.

BRIDGE 1
Everything you've done,
Your atoning sacrifice,
How you gave me new life,
there's always a reason.

BRIDGE 2
Oh, the breath in my lungs,
The compassion you've shown,
The way you welcome me home,
Oh, there's always a reason.

BRIDGE 3
You redeem my past,
You renew my heart,
We'll never be apart,
Oh, there's always a reason.

REFRAIN 2X
There's always a reason,
Oh, there's always a reason,
There's always a reason,
Oh, there's always a reason.

CHORUS 2
You gave Your life to restore mine.
You gave it all for me, and now I'm redeemed.
You call me Yours and I'm so grateful, Lord.
You took my shame, gave me a brand new name,
and now I always got
a reason to celebrate.
