BRIDGE

No evil comes near You, so I will reveal You
If the towns tremble down, I'll stand on solid ground
For You sent the angels, made the stars and the sea
In all Your ways, I know

No evil comes near You, so I will reveal You
If the towns tremble down, I'll stand on solid ground
For You sent the angels, made the stars and the sea
In all Your ways I know
(Coming after me)

You're coming, You're coming, God
You're coming, You're coming

You're coming, You're coming
You're coming, You're coming
