

Has a Name [Lyrics, 76 bpm, 4/4]

[Default Arrangement] by Elaina Marchegger, Joseph Vaught, Taryn Nelleremoe

Intro, V1, V2, Int, V3, C, Int, B, Tag

Verse 1

How can I have this joy down in my heart
How can I find my strength
When all my pieces are falling apart
And sorrow is surrounding

Verse 2

Where can I find the peace beyond my understanding
Where is the rest for my soul
When trouble's all around I don't know where to turn
When anxious thoughts fill my mind

Interlude

Mm, mm, mm

Verse 3

When all I feel is hurt how can I uphold
When I can't see in front of me
It can be hard to lift my eyes above the sorrow
And see all You've done for me

Chorus

I won't live in fear when I don't understand
You hold my heart in the palm of Your hand
My world may be shaking, but I'll stand on this truth
I don't know tomorrow, my God, You do

I won't live in fear when I don't understand
You hold my heart in the palm of Your hand
My world may be shaking, but I'll stand on this truth
I don't know tomorrow, my God, You do

Interlude

You do, You do, Hey, Yeah

Bridge

Your presence reminds me who You are
Your presence reminds me who I am

My joy has a name, my joy has a name
My joy has a name, it is Jesus

My peace has a name, my peace has a name
My peace has a name, it is Jesus

My hope has a name, my hope has a name
My hope has a name, it is Jesus
