INTRO 2X

VERSE 1

And lately I've been thinking
How the mountains bow to You,
And the stars they follow too,
Oh, it all comes back to You.

VERSE 2

And lately I've been dreaming
Of a soul that rests on You,
Of a breath that speaks Your truth,
Of a heart that yearns for You.

TURNAROUND

VERSE 1

PRE-CHORUS 2X

No one, no one,
Can separate me from this love.

CHORUS 1A

(So) take me down to the river
I'll be cleansed in the love of my risen Savior.
(So) take me out to the chapel
I'll be dancing in Your freedom cause these chains came unshackled, oh.

VERSE 3

I'm running down to the river
When my soul's feeling dry,
When I start to lose hope I'll look to the sky.

VERSE 4

If you hold all the stars,
Imagine what you'll do with my heart.
I'm walking hand in hand with the King of Day and Night

So why should I fear any fight.
