INTRO

VERSE 1

Nobody sees me inside out
Like the one who formed my inmost being.
There's something about being known that well.
It's simple, but it's freeing.

VERSE 2

Nobody knows me backwards and forwards
Like the one who authored my whole life.
The one whose hand keeps all things in order,
Yet has me memorized.

CHORUS 1

And I'll never, never, never meet a person half as kind.
And He'll ever, ever, ever be the nearest by my side.
He's the treasure, treasure, unlike anything I'll find—
The most precious that I'll find.

TURNAROUND

VERSE 3

Nobody can hold me like He does.
No one's for me like He is.
He's never anything less than more than I need
Because I was made to belong with Him.

CHORUS 2

And I'll never, never, never meet a person half as kind.
And He'll ever, ever, ever be the nearest by my side.
He's the treasure, treasure, the most precious that I'll find.

BRIDGE 1

You know me, yet you choose me,
And You love me thoroughly.
The more I know You, the more I wonder,
How could I not choose You back?
I'm yours to have wholeheartedly.

BRIDGE 2

You know me, yet you choose me,
And You love me thoroughly.
The more I know You, the more I wonder,
How could I not choose You back?
I'm yours to have wholeheartedly.
